

EXHIBIT HALL
7 to 9 p.m.

FREE
Clark County
Homeschool
Resource Night

CLASSES AT
6:30, 7:30, and 8:30 p.m.

Location:

First Church of God
3300 NE 78th St.

Vancouver, WA 98665-0656

(use west entrance and drive around to the back of brick church building. Enter through double doors down a short flight of steps)

Sponsored by:

First Class Clark County

Homeschool Co-op West

<http://www.firstclasshomeschool.org/co-ops/us/wa/fc3>

Clark County Home Educators

<http://www.cchomeed.org>

6:30 to 8:00 p.m.

“Beginning Homeschooling”

Dorothy Karman, veteran homeschooler of 25 years, will give a free class on Beginning Homeschooling at the “Clark County Homeschool Resource Night” on August 11 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Dorothy’s class will cover the following topics:

- Reasons to homeschool.
- Planning your homeschool.
- Evaluating your students’ needs.
- Choosing Curriculum.
- Additional resources.

Dorothy Karman started homeschooling in 1983. She and her husband, Dick, are the founders of the Oregon Christian Home Education Association Network.

Both of the Karman’s children are homeschool graduates, and they are the proud grandparents of three homeschooled grandsons.

7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Exhibit Hall

Come see what Clark County has to offer homeschoolers! A wide variety of homeschool-related services and organizations will be represented, including co-ops, music, sports, science, art, tutors, testing, academics, and more!

7:30 p.m. & 8:30 p.m.

“Exposing a Trojan Horse”

Come see a new 30-minute DVD that reveals some of the pitfalls to government-funded homeschooling – especially for Christian homeschool families. Dick Karman, Chairman of the Oregon Christian Home Education Association, will host a question Q & A time about government-funded homeschooling following the DVD.