HOME-BASED DISCIPLESHIP:

Passing on the Faith in a Faithless World

at the 2009 Christian Heritage Washington State Family Discipleship & Homeschooling Conference
April 23-25, 2009
Overlake Christian Church, Redmond, WA

2009 CHRISTIAN HERITAGE Keynote Speaker

Enjoy these powerful keynote and workshop messages, chosen to equip both parents and youth for each phase of the Home-Based Discipleship Journey!

Dr. Voddie Baucham, Jr.

Voddie Baucham is a powerful communicator and has devoted much of his life to training and preparation for ministry. Dr. Baucham graduated from Southwestern and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminaries and has done post-graduate study at the University of Oxford in England. Voddie is an author, Bible teacher, professor, pastor and church planter. Most importantly, he is a husband and homeschool father who is actively involved in his children's home education. He and his wife, Bridget, are blessed with five precious children.

"Thank you so much for... putting this conference together. We've been all three years. It has changed our vision & our family. We continue to experience the blessing of turning our hearts to our children. We cannot thank you (or God!) enough."

2009 CHRISTIAN HERITAGE Featured Speakers

Scott & Deborah Brown

Scott & Deborah Brown have been married for 25 years and are the proud parents of four children and two grandchildren! They reside in Wake Forest, North Carolina, where their home has been fondly dubbed a "hospitality machine," enveloping their many visitors with spiritual refreshment, comfort and love. Scott graduated from California State University in Fullerton in History and received a Master of Divinity from Talbot School of Theology. He currently serves as the director of the National Center for Family Integrated Churches. He is also a teaching elder at his church and devotes much of his time to speaking on fatherhood, church reformation and strengthening the family.

Mike Riddle

Mike Riddle has been involved in creation ministry for more than twenty years. As a former world-class athlete in the multi-event decathlon, it's not surprising that Mike is also versatile in his "creation evangelism" efforts. Not only does he speak out on the field at churches, schools and other venues, Mike also holds workshops in the new AiG-USA facility (within the Creation Museum) in Northern Kentucky. In addition, he is helping AiG develop curriculum on the Book of Genesis. Mike holds a degree in mathematics and a graduate degree in education.

Children

Parents who register for the Full Conference Pass may purchase Additional Family Member Passes for any of their children they wish to attend with them. However, the messages are geared for a maturity level of approximately 10 and above. No child care will be provided. Nursing infants attend free. We ask that you remove noisy children during all Workshops AND General Sessions so as not to disturb others.

Note: All non-adult children attending the conference must remain with a registered parent at all times (except while youth are participating in the Chorale sessions and performance). Due to space constraints, strollers, etc. are not allowed in session rooms.

Grandparents

CHRISTIAN HERITAGE encourages grandparents' involvement in home education. For this reason, we offer grandparents a special conference discount if they attend with a Full Conference Registrant.

Help Us Spread the Word!

Contact us at Brochures@ChristianHeritageOnline.org for brochures to share with friends or distribute at your church, co-op, support group, bookstore, etc.

Listen to the Conference at Home!

Recordings at special conference prices will be available onsite for individual sessions and Full Conference Sets.

Lodging

To receive special conference discounts on quality hotels in the area, see our website Conference Page.

Food

No outside food is permitted in the building. However, you are welcome to bring your own food and enjoy a picnic meal. A full-service concession stand on each level will provide a variety of lunch and refreshment items.

Location

The conference will be held at Overlake Christian Church, 9900 Willows Road, NE, Redmond, WA 98052. See our website for maps and directions.
